Dear project partners,

it was our duty, as a co-ordinating country of the Erasmus + project named Travelling Raises an Inclusive Partnership (reference n° 2019-1-SK01-KA229-060651), to communicate the potential impacts of the situation in Turkish-Syrian borders in order to organize the Learning/Teaching/Training Event for teachers in Gaziantep.

We asked Ms. Corina Meryem Andıç from the hosting school, Özel Gaziantep Bahcesehir Koleji Fen Teknoloji Lisesi, as well as our previous partners from the Gaziantep University for their opinion. We also have communicated with every partner country about their own attitude towards the Gaziantep activity in late November (25th to 30th of November 2019).

The results are the following:

1. Our Turkish partner expressed the opinion that security situation does not threaten our mobility which is, therefore, feasible. Nowadays, the Turkish school is hosting one of their Erasmus+ Learning/Teaching/Training Event, and is running without any complications.
2. Slovakia, Spain, Poland agrees with organization of the Learning/Teaching/Training Event in Turkey as planned. All these partner schools have been to Gaziantep several times via Erasmus+, always with perfect organization and no threats or danger.
3. Our Italian partner sees the safety threat as very high and therefore they will not attend the Gaziantep mobility with us.
4. The Lithuanian partner will decide about their participation according to the evolution of this situation in Syria.

Conclusion:

After the analysis of all the information, we decided (as the project co-ordinator) that the mobility in Turkey will be realized as planned. We will fully accept the attitude/decision of the Lithuanian and Italian partner and in case of not attending the mobility in Gaziantep, we will arrange the connection with them via a videochat/video conference. This will be the way how we will communicate the results of our project meetings with the Lithuanian and Italian partner, if they decide to not attend the Learning/Teaching/ Training Event for teachers. We will carefully watch the situation there in Turkey and in case of dramatic worsening, we will find other solutions.

We look forward to meeting you all in Gaziantep!

Headmaster of the co-ordinating school
