Description of the activity: Private Secondary Vocational School Pro scholaris organized a Social inclusion TRIP to the city of Banská Štiavnica (UNESCO city) and city of Kremnica. It was a cultural event with activities for students with special educational needs and for problematic classes. There were 43 students included. The city of Banská Štiavnica offers a wide range of historical and cultural monuments as it was listed as a UNESCO heritage site. The students also visited a gold and silver historical mine in Banská Štiavnica and the city of Kremnica. The members of the school TRIP travel agency accompanied their classmates as guides and they prepared all the information minimum they needed. We visited the geographical center of Europe as well. This activity was aimed to increase social bonds and sharing, exchange of experience between students. Students cooperated together and helped each other to understand new information. They exchanged their views and values about history, biology and architecture. Also they formed new relationships and shared new experiences together.

Number of people reached/target groups: 43 students and 2 teachers
