Dear TRIP coordinator and project partners,

Based on the last events linked to a possible widespread of the conflict between Russia and Ukraine, me Prof. Vincenzo Montesano, headmaster of C. A. Dalla Chiesa Institute, feel reluctant to send my personnel on a mobility to Poland.

I am perfectly aware that you are leading a normal life and that your place is a safe one and I respect your decision to maintain the before planned mobility to Nidzica but I can't be blind to the continuous worries emphasized by media and official organons (E.g. press, tv news, Italian Army) for giving a totally different scenario to all of us.

Families are frightened by the menace of the war and the eventual closing of the airports.

I perfectly know that in case of no physical partaking to an LTT I will have to give back the proper amount of the project budget money and all the expenses. I also want to remind you that the headmaster in Italy is responsible for the decisions of his teachers who, obviously, are not travelling on their own

As you know , fear is a rational/irrational response which can't be anyway ignored.

Notwithstanding this, my project coordinator and the other English teachers feel exteremely sorry and mortified for what has happened and remain available for contacting on an online basis.

Furthermore it goes without saying that the commitments taken as a task will be kept and maintained by us (our school is responsible for making videos and booklets).

The headmaster
Prof. Vincenzo Montesano
